- Essay
- Financial Statement

The Declaration will also need to be signed and then attached as an upload to the application form. It can be signed by typing your full name into the signature box

Essay

Write as a separate document a short (not more than 1000 words) essay or statement of your basic religious/spiritual understanding. Say what you conceive to be the role of a Minister today and why you think you are fitted to become a minister to a Unitarian congregation

The Declaration and Essay must be attached to your application or it will not be valid.

Financial Statement

This is to help candidates understand the budgetary impact of studying for ministry and help to highlight issues of a practical nature. Whilst financial support is available to students, it is unlikely to cover expenditure at a significant level.

This form should be submitted separately in a confidential envelope marked for the attention of Simon Bland at Essex Hall, Essex Street, London WC2R 3HY.

If you have any questions or issues about the application process for ministry training please contact Simon Bland on behalf of the Interview Panel.

Please note that completed applications should be received before midnight on 8th October 2018.

DECLARATION – NEW MINISTER

If you wish to train for the ministry, you should read and complete this section carefully.

1. I (name in full) _____ desire to offer myself as a candidate for recognition as a minister of the General Assembly.

2. If my application is approved, I am prepared to undertake either a full course of study at one of the colleges; or such a course of study or period of training as shall be determined by the Ministry Strategy Group. As a condition of my recognition as a minister, I agree:

- a) to seek the view of the Ministry Strategy Group in making any ministry settlement
- b) that I will be provided with the guidance of an experienced minister or exceptionally a suitable lay person of considerable experience (appointed by the Ministry Strategy Group and acceptable to me) during my period as a student and the first two years of my active ministry. I understand that I will be in a probationary position during those two years
- c) to consider seriously becoming a member of the Ministerial Fellowship and accepting the obligations which such membership involves
- d) to consider seriously undertaking further professional education during my ministry
- e) a candidate should understand that it is accepted practice that a minister should be willing to consider moving as and when desirable, or serving as a member of a team in a Group Ministry, or assuming an additional charge or charges under a Joint Ministry

3. Should I by my own independent decision leave my course of training, or after training leave ministerial employment with a congregation(s) or other recognised post within 5 years of my initial appointment (including two probationary years), I acknowledge my moral obligation to discuss with the college where I trained arrangements for the repayment of a proportion not exceeding 50% of the costs of my training, and agree that the amount of the repayment may be deducted from any stipend, salary, wages or other remuneration payable to me.
